Dear Raveendran Ambulal,

Deed of Confidentiality

You have voluntarily left the services of Seatrium (SG) Pte. Ltd. (the "Company") on 04 August 2023. This letter serves as a reminder of the Deed of Confidentiality which you have agreed with the Company.

The Company reiterates that it is important to preserve the confidentiality of all information belonging to the Company, including all its propriety designs and intellectual property. This confidential information is extremely important to our existence, and it is much sought after by the Company's competitors.

Therefore, it is the responsibility of every employee to protect confidential and proprietary information of the Company. Employees are hereby reminded that documents that contain proprietary information are to be kept confidential and protected from any leakage to potential party which may be or is a competitor of the Company. Such confidential and proprietary information remains the property of the Company and shall not be in possession of any person who is not an employee or an ex-employee of the Company.

This letter serves to remind you that you are not to join a new employer which may be or is a competitor of the Company within the one-year moratorium period.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,
